

Thank You

We appreciate you stopping by our website today. DiAlo Executive provides office executive services to companies' nation wide. From data entry to making collection calls, our professional executives will take care of your office needs. Our rates are reasonable, and, of course, we offer fast and accurate services. By outsourcing to us rather than hiring an in-office assistant, you will never need to pay employment insurance, vacation pay, sick pay, or contribute to retirement plans and worker's compensation.

Angelique Roy is Founder/President of DiAlo Executive, DiAlo Rent, an Online Property Listing Service and DiAlo Website and Graphic Designs, Visual Communication Consultants. While wearing her many hats, she manages the day-to-day operation of running the business along with making sure all customer needs are being met. Angelique is also the Board Advisor for RHR Home Repair and Improvements, a handyman service provider. She has over ten years of accounting, human resources, and office management experience, which has equipped her to be multi-talented.

Angelique received an Associate degree in Computer Science from Columbus State Community College and currently working on her bachelor degree from Franklin University in Graphic and Website Development. In 2008 she became an Aspiring Minister at Walk of Faith Christian Center. Her motto to life is "The greatest disaster is not falling down, but rather staying down". A native of Columbus, Ohio, Angelique is the wife of Michael Roy and the proud mother of three sons, Michael Jr, Santonio, and Montrell.

Contact us if you have any other questions. We look forward to hearing from you.

Sincerely,

Management
